

NEW DEPARTURE IN READING.

THE MORGAN COUNTY MAGAZINE

Will be issued by the management of the Morgan County Democrat, and will appear between the FIRST and TENTH of each month. The Magazine will be non-political, and will contain at least 80 pages of choice home reading. All departments will be up to date and at par with the standard Magazines, with interesting local features illustrated each month, such as portraits of prominent citizens, county scenes, etc. We will endeavor to place a sample copy in every household, and wish the reading public to appreciate our effort to give them something worthy of their support. The price will be

$1.00 PER YEAR. SINGLE COPY, 10 CENTS.

Magazine and Democrat combined, $1.75 per year. Subscribe at once.

Exchange Pickups

A Sunday Observance League has been organized at Jefferson City, and now Sunday may be distinguished from other days by strategy.

Citizens of Webster Grove, near St. Louis, have proven the fact that they scared a tramp. He threw away his "can" as he departed hastily.

Nightmare is said to have killed a victim in Wisconsin. The question arises: Did she kick him, or had he eaten too much horse bologna?

The Kansas woman who named her baby Herald in honor of the paper of that name at Topeka probably did so because the baby was such a squarely little thing.

The Holden Enterprise sees signs of another wedding, but modifies the remark by adding, "You cannot, however, sometimes always tell about a duck's nest."

A Cleveland man left $75,000, a widow, nine children and a will. Now there is a lawsuit, and when that is ended there will still be left a widow, nine children and the will.

A schoolma'am in an adjoining county resigned her position but did not explain. It wasn't necessary, as every woman knew that nothing but a wedding would cause such a move.

An anti-spitting crusade is on in Chillicothe. The Domestic Science Club, which secured the passage of an ordinance imposing a fine of $5 for using the sidewalk as a cuspidor, has demanded of the chief of police that it be enforced, and the spitters have taken to the alleys.

"Papa," said a little boy at Independence the other night, as his father went to church to conduct the prayer meeting, "just preach two minutes and pray two minutes." Wonder if the congregation wouldn't have echoed "amen" to the boy's apt suggestion?

A Moberly editor's labors are so light that he has ample time to study the styles in female hosiery, and he observes: "The story of Lot's wife turned to a pillar of salt can no longer be doubted. A young lady the other day put her foot upon a drygoods box to tie her shoe, and two young men who were passing turned to rubber."
